

listening is learning

Description is additional narration that translates images into spoken words that are inserted into pauses in a video's original soundtrack.

Description is vital for students with visual impairments and can improve learning opportunities for everyone!